TRANSCRIPT OF PORTION OF INFOWARS WEBCAST - 6.14.19

Transcribed by: Janet C. Phillips, RPR, CSR No. 124

ALEX JONES: Fotis Dulos, that's a great name. They say this lawyer is a vicious piece of scum. Connecticut lawyer getting hate mail for defending the father of five whose wife was found dead. Whether he's guilty or not, he deserves a defense. But I'm here to tell you I deserve a defense of the First Amendment.

But I'll go further on Sandy Hook. We have the Google analytics that they requested that we never looked at. Obviously they know stuff we don't know. Like, if you ever had Google ads, like, Google is, like, surveilling you. And it's 0.2-something percent out of millions of views. We basically never talked about Sandy Hook. And if I believe Sandy Hook happened or didn't happen, it's my right to say it as an American.

But I got tricked two years ago with -- three years ago -- Hillary saying, you know, "Jones says harass the families. Jones says it didn't happen."

A couple of years before, I decided I thought Sandy Hook had happened. I wasn't the guy that first questioned Sandy Hook. But I had seen so many staged events.

I mean, I think the Iranians probably attacked these ships. And my listeners are pissed at me right now. And I've had top geopolitical analysts, naval fighter bombers on, analysts, Navy Seals. They're saying different things. We've had big debates.

You could edit the last two days' shows together and have me say that Iran did it or the U.S. did it or the Saudi Arabians, because we're having real intellectual discussions about what happened.

And my lawyer is one of the top defense lawyers in the country. Nobody debates that. He does murder. He does First Amendment. He does it all. When I first hired him a few months ago, when Bob Barnes hired him, our general counsel, he said, "Listen, even if you said this, you had a right." And he'd come down here, and I'd say, "You need to watch the videos. That's out of context."

I would never say something if I don't know. I would play devil's advocate down each avenue, like it totally happened, he was on Prozac, video gamehead, or I could see they staged Gulf of Tonkin, and they staged all of this, I could see how it's a totally staged, managed event.

He's now had time, and to a great expense

1       to us, to go through it all. And he came to me
2       like a month ago. He said, "My God, it's true.
3       It's a hoax." And he said -- not Sandy Hook, but 4       what they said about me. He said, "Well, what's 5       the real play?" And I said, "It's to get our data 6       into discovery and misrepresent what it is and shut 7       us down."

8               So I'm going to show you Google analytics 9       today. I'm going to show you on screen all this.
10      You're listeners. You know that we never talked 11      about Sandy Hook in the first two or three years it 12      happened but a couple of times. And then since 13      they attacked me, I've covered it more.

14             I mean, Megyn Kelly came here and said it 15      was about another subject, about my divorce. And 16      it was all about Sandy Hook. And I said, "I think 17      Sandy Hook happened. You know, I've always 18      questioned both sides. I think anybody has a 19      right. But I'm sorry for families that got hurt."

20             She edited it together -- and we have the 21      proof, it's going to come out in court if it ever 22      gets there -- that I said all that again. And they 23      sued me on that to get around statute of 24      limitations.

25             Well, now, ladies and gentlemen, I don't

1 think the judge in this case is a bad person, but 2 they're under political pressure. And I get it.
3 I'm not an IT person. I've had to spend time I
4 didn't have trying to figure what the hell is going 5 on, and brought in outside consultants and spent 6 hundreds of thousands of dollars -- I won't even 7 tell you the number -- a half million dollars 8 trying to figure out to answer the discovery.
9 'Cause they go, "We know you've got marketing. You 10 got rich off Sandy Hook."

11 So we finally go to the Google analytics, 12 and it's like 0.2 percent. And then most of 13 that -- it turns out Bob Barnes had already done
14 the analysis. I couldn't believe it. I don't know 15 who that guy works with, man, he won't tell me, but 16 he knew the exact numbers we got on Google 17 analytics before we ever had them. 98 percent of 18 our statements said Sandy Hook happened.

19 Now, if we want to say it didn't happen, 20 that's our right as Americans. But 98 percent of 21 the zero -- .02, whatever, percent. I'm going to 22 show you this. That's not my numbers. That's 23 Google analytics. We never even talked about it.
24 But they're making it who I am.

25 You've all been listening for the last

1 two days. I'm like, I don't know who blew up the 2 ship. Ron Paul says the U.S. did it. Rand Paul 3 says he doesn't know. Trump says it's the 4 Iranians. Let's have a Navy Seal on. Let's have a 5 famous black ops operator on. Let's see what they 6 say.

7 You could take any one of those 8 interviews and say, "Jones says the Iranians did 9 it. Jones says the U.S. did it." But does it 10 matter? We're Americans. Our forebearers fought 11 and died, so we had a right to question things.

12 But I've been told, and it's been 13 admitted, even Supreme Court Justice Clarence 14 Thomas admits in a New York Times op-ed he wants to 15 get rid of press protections in the First 16 Amendment. And they admit to me -- it's in the 17 news -- that they are using me as the way to end 18 it. That's dirty.

19 So I'm going to be fine in all of this.
20 'Cause I didn't do what they said. But they're 21 going to use it to demonize free speech. And 22 that's what's dangerous. So for the next two 23 segments -- then Nick will take over in the last 24 segment, he understands preemption -- we're going 25 to have Norm Pattis, an esteemed constitutional

1 First Amendment and civil rights lawyer, roll 2 through this.

3 But I want to be very clear. I am proud
4 of questioning Sandy Hook. I was not the 5 progenitor or the daddy of it. The public
6 questioned it. So it was the tail wagging the dog.
7 And I questioned it. And then I looked into some 8 of the anomalies and found out that what people 9 said wasn't true. I found out that some of those 10 anomalies that people talked about were not 11 accurate.

12 And then I was told by the media like 13 four years ago, apologize. And I said, yeah, no, I 14 think it happened now. I'm sorry I've got to 15 question things like babies in incubators, the Iraq
16 War, WMDs in Iraq, or, you know, the Smullen case, 17 any of this. I said, yeah. And, my God, I learned 18 what Limbaugh said, never apologize.

19 'Cause I'd never apologize 'cause I
20 always believed what I was saying. But I thought, 21 oh, you just want an apology. Your feelings are 22 hurt. I'm going to apologize.

23 And then the Democratic party operatives
24 that handle and manage all of those poor families 25 and use their grief to inflict wounds on

1 Connecticut every day, go, oh, my God, we've got 2 his ass now. He says it's all fake, it's a lie.
3 We've got a Homeland show where he's the villain.
4 I never said any of that. So now the gloves are 5 off. And now we're going to get down to brass 6 tacks.

7 So I've learned a lot through this 8 process. But now we've discovered a major criminal 9 felony attempt to set up my operation and put us in 10 prison. The FBI admits we're the victim. We're 11 going to break it all on the other side. Ladies 12 and gentlemen, I'm Alex Jones, your host. We're 13 battling for America. There's no doubt.

14 Norm Pattis is one of the most respected
15 criminal and civil rights, First Amendment lawyers, 16 not just on the East Coast, but in the country.
17 And of course you see his name everywhere because, 18 you know, he's involved in all these cases.

19 In the old days, they didn't attack the 20 defense attorney because they defended somebody.
21 They said oh, that's what defense attorneys do.
22 You have a right to representation.

23 Well, now, I've got articles right here 24 calling him the scumbag of the earth. So we should 25 probably just get this out in the open right now

1           about the big case you're handling right now in 2           Connecticut. And just a minute or two on that.

3                     But like you said during the break,
4           you're almost more demonized for representing me
5           than somebody they're accusing of killing his wife.

6                     NORM PATTIS: You are not popular in 7           Connecticut. People lost friends and family at 8           Sandy Hook. And every time it's said that you deny 9           it, people feel as though you've stabbed them in 10          the chest.

11                    With respect to Ms. Dulos, she's a 12          lovely -- apparently was if she's dead, in fact -- 13          a lovely mother. I want to correct one thing you 14          said on behalf of Mr. Dulos. There is 15          circumstantial evidence that she's dead, but there 16          is no body yet. Police still look. And she may 17          well be alive. If she is dead, there is no
18          evidence that my client killed her. None.

19                    ALEX JONES: No, you're right. They're 20          not saying she's dead, in fact. I'm not the lawyer 21          here. I'm just getting out here that you were 22          telling me that lawyers you've known 30 years won't 23          talk to you representing --

24                    NORM PATTIS: Yes. It's amazing. The 25          courthouse that serves Sandy Hook is Danbury. I

1           was there the other day, and a guy I've known and 2           worked cases with wouldn't talk to me. And I'm 3           thinking, what did I do to piss him off?

4                       And I called a friend of mine, and he 5           said, "He's upset that you're representing Alex 6           Jones. People don't like him." It's surprising.
7           And, you know, for the life of me, I don't 8           understand why.

9                       ALEX JONES: Well, my frustration is most 10          people who are listeners, they're supportive.
11          Literally 50 out of 1. But they'll walk over in 12          front of my family and say, "You're a Russian 13          agent," or "Stop staying nobody died at Sandy 14          Hook."

15                      And I'm like -- now I'm like -- 16          literally, I've got Google analytics that 0.2
17          percent I ever talked about it. The media and 18          Hillary made it like I'm Mr. Sandy Hook. My 19          listeners hear it, they run off a cliff.

20                      I told this story yesterday. They talk 21          about analytics. I don't look at analytics. But 22          Joe Rogan put out 30-something clips when I was on 23          with him in February.

24                      NORM PATTIS: Wow.

25                      ALEX JONES: And the top clip had 14

1 million views on YouTube, not counting other
2 platforms. It has over a hundred million views 3 right now. I talked to Joe a few weeks ago. It's 4 the biggest thing he's ever done. 14 million for 5 the interview. The average video, 30 videos, is 6 three million views.

7 NORM PATTIS: Wow.

8 ALEX JONES: Guess what the lowest video 9 is? Look at that. It's 14 million. You see that, 10 14 million. That's the top clip. 14 mill. Now -- 11 and YouTube is famous for downloading it down and 12 not paying you the advertising. The word is it's 13 like probably 60 mill on there. I've had films on 14 Google video, before they took it down, with a 15 hundred mill. Okay? So I'm the king daddy. Okay?

16 And I'm here -- I'm here to tell the 17 little pimps, the Senator Murphys and the 18 prosecutor, the Obama-appointed prosecutor that's 19 doing all this, bitch, I don't need to talk about 20 poor dead kids to have listeners. I've got news 21 stacked to the rafters.

22 My listeners questioned 9/11. I covered 23 it. My listeners questioned this latest Gulf 24 attack, which I think was probably Iran. My 25 listeners are pissed. My listeners questioned

1           Sandy Hook, and I looked at both sides.

2                       So stop saying I'm making a living off 3       these poor children, when I've been saying for 4       years I thought they died.

5           NORM PATTIS: Well, let me tell you, I've 6       only been involved in your case for about three 7       months, and I've grown weary listening to the claim 8       that somehow there is a secret cabal of people 9       meeting together, deciding how to offend people and 10      then profiting off of it, driving the decision on 11      what to cover here.

12          ALEX JONES: My listeners are pissed that 13      I'm not saying these attacks on ships were staged 14      by our government. I think it was probably Iran.

15          NORM PATTIS: My point is --

16          ALEX JONES: The point is I've got a 17      responsibility to say what I think.

18          NORM PATTIS: You have a right to say
19      what you think. And your listeners can either 20      listen or not. You have many people who listen.
21      And what their critics don't understand is you're 22      not making people listen. You're not putting ideas 23      in people's heads.

24                 Since I've begun to represent you, I've 25      gotten emails from angry listeners of yours saying,

1 "Why are you toning him down on Sandy Hook?" I'm 2 not toning you down.

3 If I've learned one thing representing 4 you in the last three months, Alex Jones does what 5 Alex Jones want to do. I'm not aware of some 6 secret genie in the bottle pulling your strings 7 saying move left, move right.

8 There is no conspiracy at InfoWars that 9 is seeking to profit off of the woe, misery, and 10 fear of others. This is a content-driven 11 enterprise. You do sell products that I've seen 12 advertised. But the relationship between the 13 content, the editorial content and the marketing of 14 products, if there is a marketing effort that I've 15 yet been unable to discern is nonexistent. And I 16 you have spent a lot of money on me. And I'm 17 sorry. You've flown me down here at your expense.

18 ALEX JONES: Oh, you've been nothing 19 but --

20 NORM PATTIS: No, but listen to me.
21 Listen to me. It is a fool's errand. We continue 22 to go back to court in Connecticut on a weekly 23 basis to sing for your supper. And, you know, they 24 say, "Produce marketing reports." There aren't 25 any. "Produce sales analytics." There aren't any.

1           ALEX JONES: They beg me to have 2           marketing meetings. They beg me to plug. I won't 3           do it.

4           NORM PATTIS: Well, I wish that -- this 5           is not an invitation to Judge Bellis, although if 6           she's listening, she may want to accept it. If she 7           wants to come down, I suspect you'd host her.

8           ALEX JONES: We've debated having the 9           other side in, which is what we'll cover next 10          segment. The emails and the big criminal action 11          and then the big announcement is coming up next 12          segment.

13          But it's just -- do you think the 14          liberals in Connecticut that are doing this really 15          believe the Homeland version of me? Because I know 16          they know I don't have an email at InfoWars. I got 17          rid of it 10 years ago. But they keep saying I'm 18          covering that up. I mean, they know this isn't 19          true.

20          NORM PATTIS: The funny thing is -- I
21          wish you'd be rebranded. You're not Alex Jones, 22          conspiracy theorist. I'm not sure what the right 23          brand is.

24          But who are the real conspiracy
25          theorists? People seem to sit back and think that

1       you're an evil genius who has it all planned, and 2       you've got a net at every corner, and you're going 3       to profit off of their fears.

4               I love you, I've met a lot of great 5       people that work here, and I've enjoyed coming down
6       here. But this is not IBM. There is not a 7       corporate handbook telling people when to move left 8       and move right.

9               You sort of represent a cyclone with a 10      pulse. And when you blow through here, I watch the 11      bodies up against the wall trying to figure out how 12      to peel themselves off. It works. Your viewers 13      trust you because you're honest, you're real, you 14      say what's on their mind.

15              Now, the biggest eye-opener to me in this 16      case has been watching videos that the plaintiffs 17      rely on in the Sandy Hook case. I don't like 18      Mr. Halbig. He's sent me any number of emails 19      before I met you. I think the guy's a crackpot.
20      So what do I do when I see that name, Halbig? I 21      tune it out.

22              There was a point where you listened to 23      him. And to defend you, I've been required to 24      watch some of those videos. And it was a 25      jaw-dropping experience, because he raises good

1 points. Now, he may --

2 ALEX JONES: Oh. He's been on, like,
3 national TV, like Good Morning, America as the top
4 expert. He said it didn't happen. We went off
5 him. I think he really means what he's saying.
6 The point is he doesn't work for us. We don't 7 direct him in this whole conspiracy.

8 NORM PATTIS: Let me tell you a story
9 that I have not yet heard on your network.

10 I have good friends who are big-time 11 lawyers in the Pine Ridge Indian Reservation. And 12 they don't believe the 9/11 narrative. And so one 13 of them got me on the phone one day and said, "Look 14 at your computer." And I saw an aircraft that was 15 crashed into the Pentagon. He said, "That's not 16 how it happened. Look, there's no tail on the 17 airplane, but there's no damage to the place where 18 the tail should have been. This was staged."

19 Now, something told me that he had about 20 six screws loose on a five-screw device. But I
21 looked at the photo, and as a lawyer I thought, you 22 know, if you stood in front of a jury and argued 23 that piece, you'd get it. But I couldn't --

24 ALEX JONES: Exactly. He had the right
25 to say it.

1 NORM PATTIS: That's exactly right.

2 ALEX JONES: That's what I'm saying is -- 3 let me tell you, my listeners -- 'cause I think 4 Iran was probably behind these latest attacks. My 5 listeners are all mad at me for saying --

6 NORM PATTIS: Well, who do they think it 7 was?

8 ALEX JONES: They think the U.S.
9 Government, they think Trump did it.

10 NORM PATTIS: And that's the point.
11 People are so distrustful of the government, 12 they're desperate for answers.

13 ALEX JONES: And they're trying to make 14 that questioning illegal. I have been a loyal son 15 of the Republic, and my family for more than 14 16 generations has been. And I know what they do when 17 you expose them. They say you're a pedophile. We 18 knew it was coming.

19 And when the Obama-appointed U.S.
20 attorney demanded out of 9.6 million emails in the 21 last seven years since Sandy Hook metadata, which 22 meant tracking the emails and where they went, 23 well, we fought it in court. The judge ordered for 24 us to release a large number of those emails.

25 That's Chris Mattei that got that done, a

1           very interesting individual with the firm of 2           Koskoff & Koskoff run by Senator Murphy and Senator
3           Blumenthal that say for America to survive, quote, 4           I must be taken off the air. So they're very naked 5           about what they stand for.

6                        So, you know, I had them try to set me up 7           with the Russians. And I reported to the FBI, and 8           that kind of freaked them out a lot. And that's 9           all on record. It's been covered on national news.
10          So that didn't work too well.

11                       And so we learned in just the last few 12          days that when they wanted these hundreds of 13          thousands of emails out of the 9.6 million that 14          they had attachments to them that no one would know 15          what they were. We hadn't opened this. The FBI 16          has come out and said I'm the victim. And the 17          statement's coming out, officially, the U.S.
18          Attorney's office in Connecticut.

19                       But what's interesting is we checked with 20          real IT people, because we're not IT folks. We 21          made some calls. And they said, "No, you wouldn't 22          know what was in attachments and you wouldn't know 23          what they link to." 'Cause the FBI looked and they 24          said we're the victim. It was hidden. In Sandy 25          Hook emails threatening us, there was child porn.

1           So it's on record. We were sent child 2       porn. We're not involved in child porn. But the 3       fact is it's not a needle in a haystack, it's 4       fields of haystacks. And they get these emails a 5       few weeks ago, and they go right to the FBI and 6       say, "We've got him with child porn." The FBI
7       says, "He never opened it. He didn't send it."
8       And then they act like, oh, they're our friends.
9       They're not going to do anything with this.

10           Go to hell. I wasn't born yesterday. I 11       was born in the dark, but it wasn't last night. So 12       whatever's going on, I'm offering a $100,000 13       reward, not 10,000, a $100,000 reward for the 14       arrest and prosecution -- and I've had $115,000
15       bonuses in contests before. So I pay. $100,000.

16           We're going to release the metadata in 17       the next few days on InfoWars.com for the email
18       address, the company. And the folks at the company 19       are going to track it back, and they're going to 20       find out. And we're going to pay the hundred 21       thousand dollars and you're going to go to prison.

22           By the way, more than 20 people that have 23       threatened and us and my crew have gone to prison.
24       When people threatened to kill George Bush or 25       threatened to kill Obama, we reported you, you went

1 to prison. And law enforcement knows, we are 2 law-abiding. We are not offensively committing 3 crimes.

4 So $100,000 reward. And we'll release
5 the metadata by Monday of who sent this. And when 6 they're arrested, you get $10,000. When they're 7 convicted, you get $90,000.

8 Now, I wonder who during discovery would 9 send emails out of millions and then know what to 10 search and look at. I don't know. I just think 11 people are smart enough to know where to look at 12 the ISPs. $100,000. Oh, did I mention, on 13 conviction, another hundred thousand. 200,000 -- 14 no, no, wait. One million dollars. One million.
15 I can't help it. I've always done what I say I'll 16 do.

17 I don't have a lot of money, but I'll 18 sell my house. One million dollars on conviction 19 for who sent the child porn. One million dollars.
20 We're going to publish all the metadata. We're 21 going to turn you loose, the ISPs, the law
22 enforcement. You know who did it. One million 23 dollars. So now it's not 10,000 for arrest. It's 24 a hundred thousand for arrest. It's one million 25 for conviction. One million dollars.

1           You think when you call up, oh, we'll 2       protect you. We found the child porn. I like 3       women with big giant tits and big asses. I don't 4       like kids like you goddamn rapists, f-heads. In 5       fact, you fucks are going to get it, you fucking
6       child molesters. I'll fucking get you in the end, 7       you fucks.

8           Now, we're done right there. I don't 9       want you to leave the radio. It probably still 10      went out. I don't care. You're trying to set me 11      up with child porn. I'm going to get your ass.
12      One million dollars. One million dollars, you 13      little gang members. One million dollars to put 14      your head on a pike. One million dollars, bitch.
15      I'm going to get your ass. You understand me now?
16      You're not going to ever defeat Texas, you sacks of 17      shit. So you get ready for that.

18           Now, I don't usually use French, but I'm 19      pissed right now. Norm Pattis, you take over this 20      segment. I apologize for my use of French here, 21      but I'm really pissed right now.

22           NORM PATTIS: Yeah, I get that.

23           ALEX JONES: I'm not going to put up with 24      this goddamn bullshit anymore.

25           NORM PATTIS: So you should have talked

1 to me about the reward structure.

2 ALEX JONES: No. It's one million.

3 NORM PATTIS: But listen to me. I'm your 4 lawyer, and it would behoove you to listen from 5 time to time.

6 You don't ever want to create an interest
7 in the outcome in a potential witness.

8 ALEX JONES: Why does law enforcement say
9 $5,000, dead or alive? One million. 'Cause we all 10 know who did it.

11 NORM PATTIS: So let's talk about what 12 happened here.

13 ALEX JONES: You think I won't pay one 14 million?

15 NORM PATTIS: I didn't say that. I just 16 don't want you to create an interest in the outcome 17 of a person who testifies because they now have -- 18 there is a contingent interest in telling --

19 ALEX JONES: Then why does law
20 enforcement give bounties?

21 NORM PATTIS: That's different than 22 having a contingent interest --

23 ALEX JONES: No, no, no, no. We're going 24 to get -- they sent me child porn.

25 NORM PATTIS: I want to focus on the

1 issue that got you angry, because that's a great 2 issue. Okay? And Aristotle once said that a wise
3 man gets angry in the right way at the right time 4 and the right reason.

5 You're so angry right now you're just a
6 touch unwise. But I'm still behind you 100
7 percent. You should be angry. Because here's what 8 happened.

9 ALEX JONES: Norm, every time I'm on the 10 attack, I win.

11 NORM PATTIS: Listen to me. Listen to 12 me. Listen to me. You should be angry. I'm 13 behind you 100 percent.

14 Here's what I learned. I got a call the 15 other day saying that information that we were 16 court ordered to provide metadata had been run by a 17 California data processing firm for your 18 adversaries in the Sandy Hook suit. They found an 19 email that they shouldn't, quote, have. They 20 turned it over to the FBI.

21 The FBI went through the metadata and 22 found 12 emails that contained PDFs or images 23 embedded in images of child porn. Some of those 24 emails were directed to you, and they were very 25 hostile. And I'm not going to use the language

1           that were used in those emails.

2                   12 images of child pornography, if 3           knowingly possessed by you, a member of your staff, 4           or me as your lawyer, could land any one or all of 5           us in prison for up to five years.

6           ALEX JONES: Yes. But they sent it.

7           NORM PATTIS: When I heard this, I fell
8           over. And I have not stopped being angry since.
9           I'm not as angry as you, but I'm angry.

10                   The point is that somebody directed child 11           pornography into your email accounts, hoping that 12           you would open it, so that when you opened it there 13           would be direct evidence that you had viewed 14           knowingly and possessed child porn.

15           ALEX JONES: And then now, imagine, they 16           want metadata out of hundreds of thousands of 17           emails they got, and they know right where to go.

18                   What a nice group of Democrats. How 19           surprising. What nice people. Chris Mattei, Chris 20           Mattei. Let's zoom in on Chris Mattei. Oh, nice 21           little Chris Mattei. What a good American. What a 22           good boy. You think you'll put on me -- anyways, 23           I'm done. Total war. You want it. You got it.
24           I'm not into kids like your Democratic party, you 25           cock-suckers. So get ready.

1                   Anyways, you're my defense lawyer.

2                   NORM PATTIS: Yes, I am.

3                   ALEX JONES: The point is, I'm not 4                   putting up this with these guys anymore, man, and 5                   their behavior, 'cause I'm not an idiot.

6                   They literally went right in there and 7                   found this hidden stuff. Oh, my God. Oh, my God.
8                   And they're my friends. We want to protect you
9                   now, Alex. Oh, you're not going to get in trouble 10                  for what we found. F-U man, F-U to hell. I pray 11                  God, not anybody else, God visit vengeance upon you 12                  in the name of Jesus Christ and all the saints. I 13                  pray for divine intervention against the powers of 14                  Satan.

15                  I literally would never have sex with 16                  children. I don't like having sex with children.
17                  I would never have sex with children. I am not a 18                  Democrat. I am not a liberal. I do not cut 19                  children's genitals off like the left does.

20                  All right, Norm. I apologize to our 21                  affiliates. We've laid most of it out. But I've 22                  been fire-breathing today because I've talked to IT 23                  people, and they say, "You've got 9.6 million 24                  emails. You've got hundreds of thousands sent to 25                  the court. These are hidden links that they knew

1           right what to go to."

2                       And these people are appointed by Obama.
3       And it's just like, God, I'm so sick of them. I am 4       so sick of their filth and living off the dead kids
5       at Sandy Hook. And I've got all the statistics
6       that I covered it like 0.2 percent, even with all 7       the coverage now.

8                       They make it who I am. They live off 9       these dead kids, and then they say I did it.
10      'Cause they watch Homeland and they believe their 11      own filthy lies. And then they find out of grains 12      of sand at the beach, they find the magic child 13      pornography. How obvious is that, that we've got a 14      problem in this country and it's out of control.

15                      So we have nine minutes left. I 16      appreciate you being a nice person. And we'll go 17      over some of the metrics and show some things I've 18      talked about.

19                      NORM PATTIS: If I had one gift I could 20      give you, it would be to put Sandy Hook in the 21      rearview mirror forever. I hate to see people put 22      a bur under your saddle.

23                      ALEX JONES: It's not Sandy Hook.

24                      NORM PATTIS: No. Stop. You're going to 25      listen to me. You brought me down here.

1           There were 9.6 million emails that were 2           searched. We turned over about 57,000 of them. In 3           12 of them, there were embedded images of child 4           pornography.

5           As it turns out, those emails were never 6           opened. The images were never opened. There is no
7           evidence that anybody here or anyone affiliated 8           with you or you ever searched them. So clearly 9           they were placed in there as malware, as 10          evil-intended Internet communications.

11          I have spoken to federal prosecutors.
12          They regard you as a victim. They do not regard 13          you as in any way a suspect. No one's going to 14          search your computers or try to build a case
15          against you. The news takeaway here --

16          ALEX JONES: I want them to. I want them 17          to track it back to you-know-who.

18          NORM PATTIS: You are not a suspect. You 19          are not a target. You are not a person of 20          interest. You are a victim. And that's the story 21          here.

22          ALEX JONES: I wonder who the person of 23          interest is.

24          NORM PATTIS: Look, are you showing Chris 25          Mattei's photograph on here?

1           ALEX JONES: Oh, no. That was an 2 accidental cut. He's a nice Obama boy. He's a 3 good --

4           NORM PATTIS: Chris Mattei is your 5 adversary in this litigation, just as I am the 6 adversary of the people that have sued you. And it
7 is my responsibility to take their case apart if I
8 can. And he will attack you.

9           ALEX JONES: He's a white Jewboy that 10 thinks he owns America.

11          NORM PATTIS: I'm not going to engage in 12 a personal attack on Chris Mattei. I want to find 13 out who sent the emails to you. And when I find 14 that person, then I will go to war. Alex --

15          ALEX JONES: I've talked to IT. You 16 understand, hidden links in an email no one looked 17 at, to find that is like finding a needle in 5,000 18 haystacks.

19          NORM PATTIS: I agree. They've used -- 20 Koskoff Koskoff & Bieder contracted out --

21          ALEX JONES: It means there's no limit to 22 what they're going to do.

23          NORM PATTIS: They contracted out to a 24 sophisticated data-mining firm. They spent 25 probably a hundred thousand dollars to go through

1       your emails, looking for whatever they could find, 2       and they did find this.

3               You believe that that was placed there
4       and they knew where to look and how to find it. I
5       don't have evidence of that yet. I represent -- 6       listen to me, young man, listen to me. I represent 7       people.

8               ALEX JONES: They want a war, they're 9       about to get one. I'm just telling you right now.
10       I ain't screwing no kids. I'm not like -- I'm not 11       a Democrat, man.

12              NORM PATTIS: Hit the pause button. I 13       represent people accused of possessing child porn 14       all the time. Some of them are set up. You have 15       been set up.

16              Let's find the identity of the person who 17       set you up and not leap to conclusions about who it 18       might be. If it was the other side, the other 19       lawyers, I would be shocked. If it was, you know, 20       some other person, a political operative, I would 21       not be shocked.

22              We will publish the metadata. You've got 23       samples of it. We're in the process right now of 24       working with the U.S. Attorney's office to get the 25       actual communications. When I get those, I will

1       give them to you. You publicize them. And let 2       your viewers --

3               ALEX JONES: I've already been accused of 4       being a damn Russian. Now I'm a freaking pedo, 5       man? What the hell, dude. I'm sick of you
6       Democrats. You're like the scum of the planet.

7               NORM PATTIS: Be bigger than the people 8       who accuse you. There are people out there who 9       watch you because they're looking for a voice.
10       They don't understand what's going on in this 11       country. When you lose focus and lose that because 12       of anger, they lose an anchor. They are looking to 13       you for answers, not anger.

14              Be angry. But as Aristotle once said, be 15       angry at the right person at the right time at the 16       right way to the right degree.

17              ALEX JONES: I told you when they did 18       this, I said we never cover it. You saw all our 19       books. We covered it like 10 times or something.
20       And I showed you what we had, the numbers, and we 21       never covered it. I'm like, I don't know why they 22       want this.

23              NORM PATTIS: You're dead right.

24              ALEX JONES: Why do they want the 25       metadata? I said they want to plant something on

1           me. I told you that three weeks ago. And now 2           they're like --

3                   NORM PATTIS: You are dead right. When I
4           came down here, you know, I didn't know who you 5           were. I knew who you were. I could place you in 6           the political landscape. I hadn't watched your 7           show.

8                   I've made a study of you in the last 9           three or four months, and you've won me over, 10          because I think you're an honest and angry 11          American.

12                   But sometimes you're not angry at the 13          right things and sometimes you get angry too 14          quickly at the wrong things.

15                   ALEX JONES: You try people trying to 16          plant child porn on your computer, man.

17                   NORM PATTIS: Let's find out who did it 18          and then take them down.

19                   ALEX JONES: That's why I said, one 20          million. I'm not BS'ing. One million dollars when 21          they are convicted.

22                   The bounty is out, bitches. And you 23          know, you feds, they're going to know you did it.
24          They're going to get your ass, you little dirtbag.
25          One million, bitch. It's out on your ass.

1                   NORM PATTIS: Well, if they're the grass,
2 I will be your lawn mower. But let's make sure 3 we're mowing the right lawn. Okay? You have every 4 reason to be angry.

5                   ALEX JONES: One million -- I pay all 6 debts -- one million is on the street for who sent 7 me -- and we're going to get the emails. We're 8 going to publish them next week. And we're going 9 to make a whole thing. We're not going to show the 10 child porn, but we're going to put the emails out, 11 and we're going to show you where they came from.
12 One million on the street.

13                  NORM PATTIS: And where I come from, 14 what's truly terrifying is this is the 15 bottom-feeding part of the effort to take you down, 16 as you've been deplatformed, censored.

17                  ALEX JONES: A million dollars is after 18 them. So I bet you'll sleep real good tonight, 19 little jerk. 'Cause your own buddies are going to 20 turn you in, and you're going to go to prison, you 21 little white Jewboy jerk-off. Son of a bitch.

22                  I mean, I can't handle them. They want 23 war. They're going to get war. I am sick of these 24 people, a bunch of chicken craps that have taken 25 this country over that want to attack real

1 Americans.

2 NORM PATTIS: Well, be the real American,
3 and the real American attacks the right target.

4 ALEX JONES: I'm going to.

5 NORM PATTIS: Let's find that target and 6 attack.

7 ALEX JONES: Oh, my God. I've talked to 8 people. There's no way out of millions of emails 9 that didn't even say child porn, they horned in on 10 it. God almighty.

11 NORM PATTIS: You're assuming they horned
12 in on it. We don't know what the --

13 ALEX JONES: And whoever did it told them
14 to do it. We're going to get them. One million.
15 One million dollars is on the street against you.
16 You didn't destroy America on time, bitch. I am 17 pissed, man. I will give everything I have to stop 18 living in this world with these people.

19 Norm, let's be nice here. Let's go on to 20 the documents. Oh, look, Norm, we have Google
21 analytics they asked for. How much did we cover 22 Sandy Hook? Let's roll some of that. This is from 23 Google. 0.28 percent with all the coverage they've 24 done, that's how much Google says we covered it.

25 Boy, how does that fit into their model

1           that I live off the dead kids that these vampires
2           feed off of? Not me.

3                   NORM PATTIS: You will win the lawsuit in 4           Sandy Hook. As a matter of law, it was protected 5           speech and not defamatory.

6                   ALEX JONES: And they know that. So 7           there's going to be child porn put on my servers.

8                   NORM PATTIS: That may well be the plan 9           that some as-yet unidentified person engaged in.
10          We have to identify that person. It's easy to make 11          an accusation. Hard to prove it.

12                   ALEX JONES: Oh, I'm not making an 13          accusation. I am sure that U.S. attorneys 14          appointed by Obama are sweet little cupcakes. Come 15          on. I would never accuse them of --

16                   NORM PATTIS: Come on, Alex. I didn't 17          come on your show to be made out to look like a 18          naive fool. I'm as tough as any lawyer you'll ever 19          meet.

20                   ALEX JONES: I'm not saying you're naive.
21          I don't even think errand boy did this. I'm 22          actually not saying that.

23                   This is a setup. And the whole way it's 24          like, oh, Alex, we have this, but we're not going 25          to tell anybody. We're not going to tell anybody,

1       dude. I've never screwed a kid. I don't want to 2       screw a kid. Don't you ever project onto me.
3       Don't you ever do it, you lowlifes.

4               And so if they want war -- you know, it's 5       not a threat. It's like an AC/DC song. If you
6       want blood, you've got it. Blood on the streets, 7       man. I mean, I am not going to sit here in my life 8       and have these dirtbags say that I've done these 9       things I haven't done. And they know where to go 10      and weasel in and find this perfect thing. It's 11      ridiculous how obvious it is.

12             Do you think I'd roll over and spray crap 13      out my ass and show my belly and piss on myself to 14      bow down to you? You've just summoned war. So get 15      ready.

16             And I'm just asking the Pentagon and the 17      patriots that are left, and 4chan and 8chan, and 18      anonymous, anybody that's a patriot, I am under 19      attack, and if they bring me down, they'll bring 20      you down. I just have faith in you. I'm under 21      attack. And I summon the mean war. I summon all 22      of it against the enemy. I will never sell out to 23      these people.

24             Anyway, want to make some closing 25      comments?

1                   NORM PATTIS: Hi, Mom. No, look, Alex, I
2                   can't respond to the rage. I get it.

3                   ALEX JONES: How would you like this?
4                   How would you like an Obama-appointed U.S.
5                   attorney, man, that literally found a needle in a 6                   field of haystacks and tried to go to the feds and 7                   get me indicted? It's war, dude. Killing me would 8                   be better.

9                   Turning me into a child molester, into 10                  your liberal God, I'll never be a sack of filth 11                  like you.

12                  And now I ask my listeners and everyone, 13                  you claimed I sent people. I never sent anybody.
14                  And I want legal and lawful action. But I pray to 15                  God that America awaken. Will Texas be defeated?
16                  You will now decide. This is war.

ALEX JONES: On Friday, June 14th, I had a real meltdown on air. And I want to apologize for that meltdown. I maybe only cuss on air once a year or so -- they're usually able to delay it out -- when I get really emotional sometimes.

And yesterday I had a string of profanities. And, you know, we had some trouble taking care of that. I'm not CNN, where they openly cuss on air on purpose. When I get really emotional, it happens sometimes. And of course, people know the reason I was getting so upset, and we're going to talk about that in a moment.

But I've told the crew that it is a default order that if I use one cuss word, they delay it and then they go to rebroadcast for at least 10 minutes with special reports. So it will never happen again. And if anyone else ever cusses that's a host here, their show will also go to rebroadcast. That is now the policy, and stations are guaranteed I will not do that.

Now, the last time I did it, my dog, Captain, I had 12 years, French Bulldog, bled all night profusely, had a hemorrhage, and he died in my arms. I didn't sleep that night. And then I came in, and I broadcast all day, I did a special report at night, and I blew up on air and did the same thing a couple years ago. I guess that was like three years ago.

And then when Trump attacked Syria, and I thought we were going to start World War III, I cussed on an Internet stream. I shouldn't have done that.

And then just yesterday I learned earlier in the week that my emails had been gone through and gone over, and had been reported by the Sandy Hook family lawyers in Connecticut to the FBI two weeks ago, and that we've been under investigation for child porn for two weeks. So that will get you a little stressed out. And so at the end of a four-hour broadcast, I got really angry.

Now, I'm not saying that the lawyers for the Sandy Hook families set this up or did this. I'm saying this is the level of my life, that they're digging into our emails and our servers, and then they know about this two-plus weeks ago, I learned about it a couple days ago.

And it makes me very angry, because I don't have a criminal record. I'm not an organized criminal. Even if they have shows like Homeland based on me and I'm this mastermind, I'm not a

1       mastermind, folks. It's actually the opposite when 2       it comes to planning stuff out. I just shoot from 3       the hip and go with my gut. And I'm all about 4       truth.

5               And I've got my great lawyer here, Norm
6       Pattis, esteemed defense lawyer, esteemed First 7       Amendment lawyer. Everybody knows who he is. He's 8       all over national TV all the time. He's getting 9       right up there with Dershowitz and others, and of 10      course the top lawyers in the world. He was happy 11      to take my case because it was the First Amendment.

12             But then once he dug into it a few months 13      ago, he said, "My God, none of what they said is 14      true about you." So now he feels really good that 15      we're going to win the case one way or another.
16      The problem is, though, you can beat the rap, you 17      can't beat the ride. The process of this is 18      destroying me.

19             And before I get into the clarification
20      on when I talked about a million-dollar reward --
21      and I'm specific now because he explained to me
22      that the way I said it off the cuff -- 'cause I'm 23      not a lawyer or an expert in this -- violates 24      Supreme Court rulings in a case that he actually 25      was involved in. So we'll explain the legalese of 1       that million-dollar reward, and if that's still 2       being offered, or if it was ever actually issued, 3       in just a moment.

4               But just imagine, under federal law, if 5       we opened up those attachments of threats from 6       people saying how dare you talk about the kids not 7       dying at Sandy Hook, we could potentially be put in 8       jail for years. And the FBI admits that.

9               And the FBI has been very clear. They 10      have said that I am the victim -- and there will be 11      more information coming out in the next week -- and 12      that InfoWars is the victim of this.

13              But here's what I'm saying: Whoever sent 14      this, for whatever reason, this shows the 15      escalation and the insanity of all of this. I 16      barely ever talked about it. We have the Google 17      analytics showing less than 0.2 percent about Sandy 18      Hook. People are sick of it.

19              I'm not the first person to question it.
20      My audience did. And they're trying to make me the 21      Sandy Hook man so that these corporate lawyers and 22      the Democrats and others could continue to put salt 23      in the wounds of the parents in my name saying that 24      I am currently saying their kids didn't die or I'm 25      currently saying go harass them, when I never said

1 go harass them.

2 So that's why this is so dangerous. I
3 get death threats. I get child porn planted on us, 4 okay, over this. I've been deplatformed almost 5 everywhere. People spit on me in the street. I'm 6 not the victim here. But you've been with me at 7 restaurants where they say F-U and your family.

8 NORM PATTIS: That's true.

9 ALEX JONES: Okay. Now, most folks still 10 like us, but a minority of people believe all of 11 this, okay? And some people are so pissed, they're 12 trying to plant child porn on us.

13 NORM PATTIS: It's outrageous.

14 ALEX JONES: So that's why this has got 15 to be de-escalated right now. I'll try to shut up 16 and give Norm the next few segments the floor here.

17 And to watch the media spin it and try to 18 go, oh, Jones had porn on his servers, child porn, 19 'cause malware -- no, no. The FBI told us it was 20 sent in unopened emails, 12 of them with child
21 porn, threatening me over Sandy Hook, and there 22 were other attachments not saying it was child 23 porn. So it was an attempt to set us up.

24 Now, I had already authorized a hundred 25 thousand dollar reward. I got upset yesterday

1           during the rant because I did become unhinged, 2           because this is real, this is painful for 3           everybody, and I said a million.

4                       Well, the accountants explained to me we 5           don't even have anywhere close to that in the 6           company coffers. We would have a few years ago.
7           The enemy is trying to shut us down. And 8           technically I did not issue the offer correctly.
9           He's going to explain this.

10                      So the original press release stands that 11           they put out, $100,000. And he will technically 12           say it in the proper legalese way. And I've had 13           dozens of contests. One of them was $115,000, and 14           I paid out on that. So we pay out on every 15           contest. This isn't a contest. This is a reward 16           to catch this monster spreading stuff that has real 17           children that were brutally abused.

18                      You know, the UK wants to legalize child 19           porn. They said that last week. Major groups did.
20           And people aren't pointing out that children are 21           abused horribly in the production of this.

22                      So whoever sent this, even if they 23           weren't involved in the production, is just as 24           guilty in my view as those that did it, because 25           they add to creating a market for it. I'm going to 1           stop there.

2                   Norm Pattis is going to have the floor 3           now to walk through this information and what the 4           real bona fide offer is here and why we're so 5           concerned and why I got so upset. Thank you, Norm.

6                   NORM PATTIS: Well, thank you, Alex. I
7           was with you yesterday, and I accept and understand 8           the rage that you feel, because your reputation has 9           been dragged through the mud. You are an honest
10          American, speaking sometimes uncomfortable truths
11          to people, and you've made a world of enemies. I 12          get that. But, you know, to go from the 13          marketplace of ideas to an attempt to put you 14          behind a prison cell should have enraged you, and 15          it did.

16                  You know, I'm not a broadcaster. You 17          dropped the F-bomb a few too many times for some 18          people to be comfortable with, and you'll have to 19          deal with that with the people who carry your show.
20          The new profanity policy will certainly help.

21                  As to the question of the reward, what 22          troubled me was the notion that some part of the 23          reward could be contingent on the outcome in the 24          criminal case. That's a disaster.

25                  The Sixth Amendment gives any person

1       accused of a crime the right to confront witnesses
2       against them. And a classic confrontation is the 3       witness' interest in the outcome. By dangling out 4       a reward that had a $900,000 contingency fee, you
5       made a dream prosecution possible -- or a dream
6       cross-examination, rather, possible for any lawyer 7       defending the person who did this to you and to 8       InfoWars. And that person needs to be held 9       accountable.

10               You don't want to create a situation
11       where a person has an interest in the outcome. It 12       gives them a motive to lie.

13               ALEX JONES: You're talking about a case 14       in the Supreme Court.

15               NORM PATTIS: It was cert denied. I took 16       it through the Second Circuit and the Federal Court 17       of Appeals. We couldn't get the Supreme Court to 18       hear it.

19               The reward, as I understand it, is that 20       you are offering $100,000 to any person who 21       provides information that leads directly to the 22       arrest and prosecution in federal court of the 23       person who sent this material to you.

24               We've chosen our words carefully there
25       for the following reasons: The federal government

1       has the resources to conduct this investigation.
2       The federal government can, if it wants to, almost 3       certainly find the person or persons who sent this.

4               If they do, that's an impossible case to 5       defend. And that's the reason I was so upset with 6       the structure of the reward yesterday.

7               ALEX JONES: No, I understand. Because 8       if we're saying an extra 900,000 if they're 9       convicted, that would create an incentive for 10      people --

11              NORM PATTIS: To then lie.

12              ALEX JONES: -- to then lie on the stand 13      to make sure the person is convicted. I'm not a 14      lawyer, but I get what you're saying.

15              NORM PATTIS: Okay. So the reward offer 16      is the following: $100,000 to the person who 17      provides information that leads the federal 18      government to arrest a person for framing you, 19      basically, or trying to frame you with this child 20      porn.

21              Now, here's what happened with respect to 22      this: Mr. Jones and InfoWars has been sued by the 23      surviving members of victims of the shooting at 24      Sandy Hook. He's been sued for comments he made 25      about the investigation when the events were raw.

1           In the days after the shooting, for 2           example, you've all seen film footage of officers
3           running in the back of a building after a person
4           who was not the shooter. The shooter was dead.

5           You look at that film and you say,
6           "What's going on?" It's not a crime in this 7           country to ask questions about what's going on.
8           The First Amendment protects that. Wolfgang Halbig
9           appeared on this show from time to time and raised 10          16 questions about anomalies or things that didn't 11          make sense in the investigation. That's not a 12          crime to ask those questions.

13          I live not far from Sandy Hook. So from 14          my perspective, there's never been any doubt that 15          it happened. A friend of mine lost his 16          stepdaughter. And the suggestion that it didn't 17          happen to me is outrageous. But I don't believe 18          it's outrageous to defend a person's right to say 19          that.

20          Just as the federal courts upheld the 21          right of Nazis to march in Skokie, it is our 22          God-given right as Americans to question power and 23          to question authorities.

24          And forget not for a moment that the same 25          government that Alex Jones questioned is the one

1       that poisoned Americans as part of experiments in 2       the Tuskegee experiment with syphilis that 3       administered mind-altering drugs to unknowing 4       subjects to experiment with thought control, and 5       has engaged in any number of activities that have 6       caused harm to ordinary people.

7               We have that history. Alex Jones owns 8       it. InfoWars explores it. So to the haters out 9       there, get over it. We have a First Amendment, and 10      that First Amendment is intended to protect our 11      rights to ask questions. And I will proudly defend 12      to the death any person who asks those questions, 13      including Alex Jones.

14             As to this attempt to silence him, you're 15      all aware of the deplatforming efforts from 16      Facebook, from PayPal, and others. And there are 17      those who would seek to silence his voice and the 18      voice that comes out of InfoWars. We will take 19      steps to address those in every forum that 20      Mr. Jones authorizes. We've prepared litigation at 21      some point that may or may not be filed.

22             The attempt to silence him by framing him 23      for a crime, though, did inspire him to lose his 24      temper. I wish he hadn't lost it in quite the way
25      he did. But I understand it, and you should, too.

1       Because if it happened to a loved one, or if it 2       happened to your child or to you, wouldn't you be 3       angry enough to kill, if a stranger sought to put 4       your loved one, your son, your daughter, you,
5       behind bars by making it look like you were a sick
6       pervert? That's what happened.

7               ALEX JONES: And my own crew. The FBI 8       told you, like, they could get arrested if they 9       opened that.

10              NORM PATTIS: Absolutely.

11              ALEX JONES: And so I've been under 12       control the first few days. But once I started 13       talking about it, I just blew up.

14              NORM PATTIS: And you did. And that's 15       life. That's yesterday. Today is today.

16              ALEX JONES: And there's a policy in 17       place where it won't ever happen again. Because 18       one cuss word, they hit delay, and I'm taken off 19       the air.

20              NORM PATTIS: So the record is absolutely 21       clear, we gave emails under court order to the 22       lawyers for Sandy Hook. And that included metadata 23       or coded data about the emails and what they meant 24       and what they were associated with.

25              It's my understanding that the Sandy Hook

1 lawyers then sent those materials to a California
2 firm to tell them what was in it, basically. The 3 California firm spotted something suspicious. The 4 Sandy Hook lawyers did what lawyers are supposed to 5 do. They reported it to the FBI.

6 For two weeks, the FBI conducted an 7 inquiry. And I learned on Wednesday of this week 8 that that inquiry concluded that no one here has 9 any guilty knowledge of those emails. Indeed, 10 there's no reason to suspect anybody even knew they 11 were here. They were not opened.

12 I think -- and I'm not sure because I 13 have not seen the written documents yet, we have 14 not yet received it -- that they may have been PDF
15 images or video images. They weren't opened. They 16 were in emails about other topics.

17 There was no suggestion that anyone here
18 went looking for that material. There was no 19 suggestion that anyone here wanted that material, 20 ever looked about it, or even knew about it.

21 ALEX JONES: So they're basically booby
22 traps. They're land mines.

23 NORM PATTIS: Absolutely, they are. And 24 had you opened one of them, it could have exploded 25 to the cost of your liberty, which should have

1           angered you. And I hope it does anger all of your 2           listeners.

3                   ALEX JONES: I got so mad at whoever did 4           it, that's why I was like, a million, a million.
5           That will get them busted. But you're right, that 6           could get them off.

7                   So we're doing the legal lawful offer
8           that we originally were going to do. And I'm sorry 9           I went farther than that yesterday.

10                   NORM PATTIS: I'm hoping that your 11           listeners will forgive the event yesterday, 12           understand the anger, and come forward to offer 13           your support.

14                   And, you know, far be it for me to say
15           this, I don't want to step on your toes, but you 16           know, it's costing you a king's ransom to defend 17           yourself. I'm down here from Connecticut. I don't 18           bill by the hour, 'cause you couldn't afford it.

19                   But, you know, Mr. Jones is incurring 20           substantial legal fees to fight for your right to 21           hear the truth as he sees it and as you see it. It 22           wouldn't be too much for me or anybody else to ask 23           you help him with those legal fees.

24                   ALEX JONES: And folks should make no 25           mistake. This is about all of your rights, because

1 Facebook also on Friday announced that the little 2 assist things that are in your house with cameras
3 and microphones are watching.

4 If you say stuff that's politically 5 incorrect, that will be put in the database, and 6 you will get kicked off Facebook. And they said if 7 you said something 10 years ago that the Facebook 8 data system is having loaded into it by its users, 9 you will be taken off.

10 NORM PATTIS: Let me tell you a funny
11 story. In the wake of 9/11 -- you know, federal 12 judges, you talk to judges on the phone. It's part 13 of your job. And there was a federal judge that I 14 got along with pretty well. And I knew he was an 15 friend of civil liberties.

16 And so just after 9/11, we were talking 17 business one day on the phone. And I said, "Judge, 18 how's your garden growing?" He says, "I beg your 19 pardon?" I said, "Weren't you having a problem 20 with some bushes of a certain type in the garden?" 21 He says, "What do you mean?" "Weren't you using 22 weed killers to assassinate those bushes?"

23 And he said, "You can't talk like that on 24 the phone." And I said, "Why not? This is the 25 United States of America. And if the NSA or

1       anybody else is listening to this conversation" -- 2       I guess I can't say what I told him, 'cause -- due 3       to your profanity policy -- "if the NSA is 4       listening, F-U and the warrant you didn't ride in 5       on."

6               I'm proud of you, Alex. Keep speaking 7       the truth.

8               ALEX JONES: But that's exactly what's 9       happening. But Facebook is creating a huge open 10      air re-education -- the Chinese social score. But 11      they're actually going further saying -- just like 12      Samsung said five years ago, watch what you say 13      around your TV. We're selling information off 14      microphones to third parties.

15              This is really happening. And then I'm 16      the bad guy because I questioned Sandy Hook. But 17      Facebook and Google and Apple moving to China and 18      helping oppress their people, and then bringing 19      this here and listening to us in our houses and 20      telling us they are in a press release, I mean, 21      what are they doing?

22              NORM PATTIS: You're not watching your 23      devices. Your devices are watching you. And I 24      hope you'll fight back.

25              I want to hawk a book I've been

1 encouraging you to read. It's Shoshana Zuboff's 2 The Age of Surveillance Capitalism.

3 ALEX JONES: I've read reviews of it.

4 NORM PATTIS: I'm an old man, but it's 5 one of the most important books I've read in the 6 last 35 years. When you read that, if you don't 7 get angry, you're living on another planet.

8 She refers to big data and artificial 9 intelligence harvesting our data not as big 10 brother, but big other. And I would encourage you,
11 Alex, to weekly make a point of harvesting
12 information about big others. You know, tell this 13 to your viewers.

14 What started this republic were ordinary 15 people who by handshakes agreed to revolt. We need 16 a handshake economy in this country, and we need 17 people to fight big other, because we're losing our 18 liberty.

19 ALEX JONES: Absolutely.

20 And I want to make this point again about 21 the Daily Beast and a bunch of others.

22 They act like, oh, it was alleged 23 malware. No. People threatened us over covering 24 Sandy Hook, saying that we said the kids didn't 25 die, and then planted child porn. Okay? That's

1           what the FBI says. That's what happened. So they 2           need to get that straight in the Daily Beast.

3                       And then they also say "Jones is 4           currently being sued by families of Sandy Hook
5           victims, who say he profited off of spreading 6           claims the massacre was a hoax." Did not profit 7           off of it. Total bull. "He appeared to suggest 8           repeatedly throughout Friday's episode that he was 9           framed by someone tied to those suing him." That's 10          misrepresentation again. "He repeatedly singled 11          out Christopher Mattei, a former assistant U.S.
12          attorney, who currently represents the Sandy Hook 13          families, and rallied against Democrats, who he 14          appeared to believe were working against him."

15                      I do think some Democrat or anti-Alex 16          Jones person did this. I'm not saying that about 17          Mattei.

18                      NORM PATTIS: Let me stop you for a 19          minute. I'm relieved to hear you say that.

20                      ALEX JONES: But, see, that's how they 21          work, though.

22                      NORM PATTIS: It is how they work. But 23          don't make it easy for them. Chris Mattei is a 24          lawyer. Lawyers are advocates. I don't think 25          Chris was involved in this. And I don't think you

1           meant to suggest that he was. And if anybody took 2           that suggestion, we're walking it back 180 degrees.

3                   Now, having said that, we're going to 4           find out who did do this. And the day of reckoning
5           will come. We just don't know who it is right now.

6                   ALEX JONES: I have a sneaking suspicion, 7           because I've gotten a lot of other harassing and 8           threatening things from a certain person.

9                   NORM PATTIS: Let's find out.

10                  ALEX JONES: I'm mad at Mattei, and these 11           other people, because he's a former federal 12           prosecutor, and they know full good and damn well I 13           don't have InfoWars email. They know we don't have 14           all this marketing stuff. They know. Because it's 15           all been chronicled by Media Matters. They've done 16           massive research on us.

17                  And they just keep going to that judge
18           and saying -- no. I got rid of my InfoWars email
19           over 10 years ago, because I would get 7,000, 5,000
20           emails a day. Okay. It doesn't work. I have a 21           private email for, like, paying bills and family
22           photos, contracts. And we turned that over, too.

23                  But it's just crazy that you're not 24           finding what you thought was there because it isn't 25           there, and you keep going to the judge and lying

1       about me. And that's what makes me angry. And 2       that then they would troll nine million emails and 3       then find something in there, and of course it's 4       Sandy Hook. I mean, it never ends.

5               So it is suspicious that that's Sandy 6       Hook and they found it. I'm not saying they did 7       it. I'm saying the whole thing smells really bad.

8               NORM PATTIS: It does. And it's --

9               ALEX JONES: I didn't mean to interrupt 10      you.

11              NORM PATTIS: No. Don't worry about it.

12              I mean, it is frustrating. I have to go 13      to court almost weekly to deal with these issues.
14      And I keep telling them there is no secret sauce
15      here. There is no marketing plan.

16              ALEX JONES: Have you not been given 17      access to everything?

18              NORM PATTIS: I have.

19              ALEX JONES: You've spent weeks down
20      here.

21              NORM PATTIS: This is my fourth trip to 22      Texas, and I met with you once in another city.
23      I've gotten to meet every person that works here, 24      or that I wanted to meet at least. I've developed 25      good working relationships with all the people who

1           are important to the organization.

2                   You know, nobody's happy to see me. I
3           come walking in here and I feel like I'm off the 4           dark star galactica. But I have a role in your 5           life, which is to defend you and the institution.
6           People understand it. I think people are upset.

7                   And candidly, this whole email thing did 8           not make my job any easier, because when you're 9           under attack, every stranger is suspect. And I'm 10          usually not bearing good news when I walk in here.

11                  But I'll say to you what I said to each 12          of your employees: Stick with it. I couldn't be 13          prouder to defend you, and I'll defend you to the 14          death.

15                  ALEX JONES: Where do you think all this 16          attack to free speech goes? Because, just like we 17          said a year ago, they banned me, everybody else.
18          Now they're just banning everybody off all the 19          platforms. Facebook now says if we designate you a 20          hate figure, you'll be removed off everything, and 21          banking groups will be notified, just like happened 22          to me. This is in their own internal emails and 23          statements that, quote, we're watching you and 24          everything you ever did even in the past, and we're 25          getting data in your house on you, so watch what

1           you say. The bullying of that, that is just --

2                   NORM PATTIS: Absolutely. Who are the 3           haters here? I mean, you get identified as a 4           purveyor of hate speech. You are the target of 5           more hatred than anything I've seen directed out of 6           this place.

7                   But let's be real about Facebook. Let's 8           be real about secret credit ratings. And I'm not 9           going to mention the names. You know who you are.
10          And you'll be hearing from us soon.

11                   Facebook. Facebook enjoys a 12          congressional grant of immunity from suit under 13          Section 230 of the Communications Decency Act.
14          They have a quasi-monopoly over a quintessential
15          public forum, how we communicate with one another.

16                   The government couldn't get away for a 17          nanosecond with content-based restrictions on 18          speech. Facebook does and they say, oh, we can do 19          this because it's in the Terms of Service. Nobody 20          reads the Terms of Service.

21                   I'm encouraging you to bring an action
22          against Facebook saying if the First Amendment 23          doesn't apply to you, it damn well ought to, 24          because you have a quasi-governmental role in our 25          lives, and now you're spying on us.

1                   And here's the rub: You're sharing that 2                   information with the government. I learned not 3                   long ago --

4                   ALEX JONES: That's right. They used 5                   them as a third party to get us to trick and opt in 6                   and waive our rights, and then they're really the 7                   government.

8                   NORM PATTIS: Absolutely. And it's 9                   absolutely chilling.

10                  ALEX JONES: And that's why big tech is 11                  so arrogant, because they know where all the bodies 12                  are buried. And the deep state's been keeping most 13                  of this from Trump. So he's only now learning 14                  about it.

15                  NORM PATTIS: And let's talk about 16                  something that's even more scary.

17                  I'm aware of a credit rating entity that 18                  keeps its identity secret. And I don't want you to 19                  mention their name. I know you're aware of them, 20                  too. They keep their identify a secret. They sell 21                  for a service a secret rating of people. And they 22                  rely on their big data to crunch. And if they put 23                  a black mark against your name, you might have 24                  trouble with your banks. You might have trouble 25                  with your credit card processor.

1                   ALEX JONES:  You've seen --

2                   NORM PATTIS:  I have a document in my 3                   possession --

4                   ALEX JONES:  -- that says this person has 5                   perfect credit, never anything wrong.  But a secret 6                   group says he's hateful, so he's banned from 7                   commerce.

8                   NORM PATTIS:  They don't ban you, but 9                   others use that rating to ban you.  That's just 10                  simply wrong.  That is Gestapo tactics.  And it's 11                  being done because they can, because their private.
12                  I think there's a crisis with big data, big other, 13                  in this country.

14                  ALEX JONES:  Because it's this black box 15                  that does whatever it wants.

16                  NORM PATTIS:  Absolutely.

17                  ALEX JONES:  All right.  Norm Pattis,
18                  you've got a lot going on.  I don't want to digress 19                  at the end into an another area.  But people have a 20                  right to defense lawyers.  In the past, people seem 21                  to think that.

22                  I'm not in a criminal issue -- they're 23                  trying to make it that -- but you're a famous 24                  criminal lawyer as well, defense lawyer, you're 25                  defending the biggest case in the country right

1           now.

2                   NORM PATTIS: Well, I do defend Fotis
3           Dulos on suspicion that he was involved in the 4           disappearance of his wife, Jennifer, who's been 5           missing now for some three weeks. And, you know, 6           that's been an unnerving experience.

7                   He was in court the other day, and there 8           were more reporters than I could count. Where is 9           the body, where is this. There is no body that 10          we're aware of. And read my lips: Mr. Dulos has 11          entered his plea, and it's not guilty.

12                  If the State of Connecticut has evidence 13          to suggest he was involved in this crime, it's time 14          for them to put up or shut up.

15                  So we came back at the media fairly hard.
16          I've received a lot of threats. He received a 17          death threat the other night. In fact, I didn't 18          know I was coming down here until about eight, 19          nine o'clock on Friday night. Before you called 20          and asked me to come down, I was on the phone with 21          a federal prosecutor asking them to investigate a 22          death threat against Mr. Dulos. It's a crazy
23          freaking world out there. It's a crazy world.

24                  ALEX JONES: Well, I mean, the judge did 25          release him, so people are calling you the Houdini

1 defense lawyer.

2 NORM PATTIS: Thank you. I'll take that.
3 There is no magic in court. There's just hard work
4 and the rule of law. And what keeps the courts 5 honest are juries. And what keeps juries honest is 6 information. Keep doing what InfoWars does and 7 we'll have good juries.

8 ALEX JONES: Why did the court release
9 him? 'Cause the media says he's guilty.

10 NORM PATTIS: Well, he was able to make 11 bond. He's been charged with hindering prosecution
12 and tampering with evidence, not with murder. I 13 don't think there's enough to charge murder. The 14 state has told me privately it will charge if it
15 can. We'll see. You know, right now we're doing 16 well. But he was able to make bond.

17 ALEX JONES: Well, that's big news, 18 though. The state is telling you they intend to 19 charge if they can.

20 NORM PATTIS: Absolutely. I mean, they 21 believe he's responsible for her death. And my 22 response is prove it.

23 ALEX JONES: Well, in closing, you were 24 saying, though, that you almost get more heat 25 representing me for free speech than for this guy

1           that people think is a murderer.

2                   NORM PATTIS: I get heat for both. And 3 my view is what distinguishes a republic -- you
4 know, let's talk about the Roman orator, Cicero.
5 Years ago, he said that a republic, a re publica, a 6 public common thing or a commonwealth, depending on 7 how you translate it, is not any random collection 8 of people, but it's a group of people bound 9 together by two things: Common interest and a 10 common conception of right.

11                   In the United States, our Constitution is 12 our commitment to one another. And the Bill of 13 Rights is our guarantee that we'll be treated 14 equally and with respect.

15                   In your case, I will defend you against 16 anybody in your First Amendment right to speak. In 17 Mr. Dulos' case, I will defend him on Fifth, Sixth 18 Amendment grounds.

19                   ALEX JONES: And I want to be clear. The 20 first three or four times you were down here, you 21 were all over our stuff, didn't believe me, were 22 digging in everything.

23                   NORM PATTIS: It's true. It's true.

24                   ALEX JONES: You wanted to know the 25 truth. But you learned. I never BS'd you. And

1       now you say you were real -- it's your right to 2       have a lawyer, but you've found that I've been 3       telling the truth.

4               NORM PATTIS: Yes, I have. I mean, I had 5       my suspicions about -- you know, I live in blue 6       state Connecticut. I had my suspicions about you.
7       And I aired them with you. And we had some 8       conversations that we now joke about between us 9       about who I thought was behind all of this. There 10      is nobody behind it but ordinary people.

11             ALEX JONES: Hey, if there is somebody
12      with big money out there, the Mercers or anybody 13      else, if I don't have to change what I say, I'll 14      take the money, but --

15             NORM PATTIS: No, no, no. Mr. Mercer, if 16      you're going to contribute to anybody, give it to 17      me. I'll take my fee and I'll give the balance to 18      Alex Jones. I'm a lawyer. I'm not chasing the 19      ambulances here. I'm chasing the First Amendment.

20             ALEX JONES: Thanks for coming to town.
21      Hard-working guy. This guy works like seven days a 22      week. All right. Norm Pattis.

23             All right. That's it for this special 24      transmission. We're going to re-air this tomorrow.
25      Our Owen Shroyer is hosting the live Sunday show,

1           'cause I'll be spending time with my children.

2           I'll be back, Lord willing, Monday at 11 a.m.

3           Central. Please stay with us.
